

ZINES ARE ART: SHARING INFO, TELLING STORIES, DO IT YOURSELF.

A mini-zine for you, made with love by Dawn Stahura

You matter. Your voice matters. Your stories matter.

What are zines? (SENS) Self-published booklets in a cut-in-paste style, photocopied.

ANYONE CAN MAKE ONE

You give out your zine to the people you want to read it!

History of Zines

- Women making scrapbooks
- Sci-Fi fans writing fiction About their fav shows
- Punks writing about their music
- Riot GRRRLS writing about how tough it is to be a girl
- Marginalized folks writing about their lives and sharing their stories.

Why make a zine?

- Tell your story the way you want/need to.
- Share your ideas, thoughts, feeling, opinions with others.
- Zines can be therapeutic, allowing you to work through your problems.
- If you don't see the stories you want to read, write them yourself.
- Make friends! Zinesters are the very best people in the whole world.

How to make zines

All you need is yourself and an idea.

You can handwrite your zine, use a computer, find a typewriter, use stencils.

Really, it's whatever you want to do. It's YOUR zine.

You will need scissors, glue sticks, some paper, and a photocopier.

The rest is up to you. You can create collages, adorn your pages in glitter and stickers, or use fancy paper.
